Banking today is an important career for enthusiasts in the field of commerce and accounts. Since the banking sector is booming in India, the scope is relatively high. Getting into an entry-level career after graduation is a bit difficult due to heavy competition in entrance exams.

So to guide our students as to how to get through these exams and make a successful career in banking the department conducted a guest lecture for FTCE students and invited an eminent banker of our city Mrs. Gauri Dolas Madam who has done M. Com, GDC&A, ARN, CIE (Chief insurance Executive) and also CAIIB, currently working as a Manager in Nagpur Nagarik Sahakari Bank Ltd, branch, Itwari. She has a huge experience of 26 years in Banking service and has efficiently handled some difficult tasks of recovery, Auction of property, seizing of property.

She told the students how to practice regularly for different subjects, be in touch with current news and instead of going for net banking every time, they should sometimes visit the branch to

Adoption of digitalization is very important for the banking sector. By embracing digitalization, banks can provide enhanced customer services. This provides convenience to customers and helps in saving time. Digitalization reduces human error and thus builds customer loyalty.

So, to guide our students towards having round-the-clock access to banks, managing large amounts of cash, an eminent speaker Mr. V. Subramanian was invited. Digitization has also benefitted customers by facilitating cashless transactions. Customers need not store cash anymore and can make transactions at any place and time.

Around 100 students joined through ZOOM and rest of the students joined through the YouTube link provided to them. The coordinator of the cell is Dr.SusmitaMandavgane and the program coordinator was Dr. M. L.Vanjari, Asstt. Prof. Department of Commerce.
